School drive reminder

Just a gentle reminder that before 8.30am staff are using the drive to come to work and therefore please could families use the pavement to ensure the safety of all.

Storytime podcast with the Junior school

In case you've not had a chance yet, please do check out the storytime podcast that some of our children have been working on with Mr Reid and Junior school children. Hopefully if your child has been involved they've already told you, but you never know! It's posted each week on our website at the link below.
